CANONISATION: Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman will be canonised on Sunday 13 October 2019 in Rome, and this will be a day of rejoicing for the Congregation of the Oratory and for our Archdiocese. Following the Canonisation, there will be a national celebration at Westminster Cathedral as well as events at the Birmingham and Oxford Oratory Churches.

On the Sunday after the Canonisation (20th October at 4pm) there will be an Ecumenical Vespers at St Chad's Cathedral, to which Christian, Inter-Religious and Civic Leaders from Birmingham and across the Archdiocese have been invited. All are welcome.

APF/MILL HILL RETURNS FOR 2018: The Archbishop wishes to convey the thanks of Missio to the priests, people and the local APF/Missio collectors of the Archdiocese for their generous and consistent support of the missions through the Association for the Propagation of the Faith/Mill Hill. The total contributed for the APF-Mill Hill in 2018 by the parishes in the Archdiocese of Birmingham amounted to £289,551.00. A lot of hard work has gone into collecting this great sum and it is very much appreciated. New supporters are always welcome. Please speak to the Co-ordinators.

The Birmingham Catholic Charismatic Renewal Conference entitled, 'The Body of Christ', takes place from Monday afternoon 12 August to lunchtime Friday 16 August at St John's Hotel, 651 Warwick Road, Solihull, B91 1AT. The main speaker is Fr Patrick Collins of the Vincentian Congregation. Mass takes place each evening. Day attendance fee is £20 though there are concessions for families and young people.

Notes to Readers: A few copies are available in our churches, please make use of them.

The Dangers of Wealth (Luke 12:13-21) Luke's language and style make it clear that he comes from a reasonably privileged background. In his stories he refers to far larger sums of money than Mark does. He also understands about investment banking and rates of interest. This makes it all the more striking that he continually warns against the dangers of wealth. Jesus brushes aside a dispute about inheritance. The parable of the Rich Fool is perhaps the most condemnatory of all the parables; nowhere else in the gospels is anyone called outright a 'Fool'! Luke tells us that salvation came first to the poor, to the shepherds of Bethlehem, through a baby cradled in a cattle-trough. Only Luke says that the apostles left 'everything' to follow Jesus. The guests invited to the Great Supper refuse the invitation because they are distracted by their new purchases. In the ideal young community of the early Church in Jerusalem Luke insists that everything was held in common. The only hope for the rich (for example in the parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus) is to use their wealth to make friends in heaven.

What challenge does Jesus offer me in this Gospel, particularly about where I find my true 'treasure'? - Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

The Church on Mission in the World: During October 2019, the Archdiocese of Birmingham will be marking an Extraordinary Missionary Month, called for by Pope Francis, for the purpose of rediscovering the missionary heart of the Church, in all aspects of her life and worship, and especially in every Catholic.

Christ's Great Commission carried the Gospel across the globe, but in England and Wales we find our people and culture in need of a New Evangelisation.

With that in mind, parishes and individuals are being encouraged to express their missionary character in various ways throughout the month — this will be different in each place. Please visit: <http://www.october2019.va/en.html> for resources. In the meanwhile:

- Pray each day for evangelisation in your parish, and pray particularly for opportunities for you to evangelise, and see what God does!
- Plan one or two events in your parish that will invite others to meet Jesus.

The Pope has also specified four dimensions, to live more intensely the journey of preparation to the missionary month, namely:

- A personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in His Church through the Eucharist, the Word of God, personal and communal prayer;
- Testimony: missionary saints, martyrs and confessors of the faith, as an expression of the Church scattered throughout the world;
- Missionary formation: biblical, catechetical, spiritual and theological;
- Missionary Charity.

The Annual Pilgrimage to Harvington Hall, Shrine of the English Martyrs will take place on Sunday 1 September. All are welcome.

Annual Rosary Rally takes place on Sunday 1 September 2019 at Mount St Bernard Abbey. All are welcome.
